WILMINGTON, DE, UNITED STATES, January 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- MariamTek Inc. Announces Strategic Shareholding in Native Star LLC to Advance Innovation and Economic Growth

MariamTek Inc., a leading innovator in health-tech and sustainable technology solutions, is pleased to announce its recent acquisition of a strategic shareholding position in Native Star LLC, a pioneering entity specializing in leveraging Sovereign Native American Tax Credits (NATCs) to drive transformative economic and technological initiatives.

Our investment in Native Star underscores our commitment to working with visionary partners who share our values of sustainability, inclusivity, and growth.”

Mark Holterman

This partnership marks a significant milestone for both organizations, aligning their shared vision of fostering innovation, economic empowerment, and community development. By joining forces with Native Star, MariamTek aims to expand its capabilities, drive impactful projects, and create meaningful opportunities for Native American communities and beyond.

Unlocking New Opportunities with Native Star

Native Star LLC has established itself as a trailblazer in utilizing Sovereign Native American Tax Credits to fund groundbreaking projects across sectors such as renewable energy, smart infrastructure, and advanced technologies. Through this collaboration, MariamTek will:

- Expand Its Reach: Tap into Native Star’s expertise in securing NATCs to fund scalable health-tech and green technology projects.

- Accelerate Innovation: Bring cutting-edge solutions, including MariamTek’s advanced health technologies, to underserved communities.
- Foster Economic Development: Support job creation, education, and infrastructure development within Native American territories.

MariamTek’s Vision for Collaboration

“At MariamTek, we are dedicated to creating solutions that not only innovate but also empower communities,” said Mark Holterman, CEO and Founder, MariamTek Inc.. “Our investment in Native Star underscores our commitment to working with visionary partners who share our values of sustainability, inclusivity, and growth. Together, we are poised to transform challenges into opportunities while delivering measurable impact for all stakeholders.”

Anjo De Heus, CSO MariamTek Inc. added, “With a mission to empower groundbreaking technologies in medical innovation, sustainable energy exploration, and cutting-edge tech solutions, we leverage our unique position as recipients of strategic Native American Tax Credits to create value for our partners, stakeholders, and Native American communities.

By combining visionary thinking with actionable investments, Native Star Ventures bridges the gap between untapped potential and global impact, ensuring every venture is a step toward a brighter, more sustainable future.

This strategic partnership also includes plans to transform Native Star into a Community Development Financial Institution (CDFI), enhancing its ability to fund and execute community-driven projects that prioritize long-term economic and social benefits.

Positioning for Long-Term Success

As a shareholder in Native Star, MariamTek will play an active role in guiding the company’s strategic direction.

Key areas of focus include:

1. Healthcare Innovation: Leveraging MariamTek’s expertise in healthtech to address critical health disparities in Native American communities.
2. Sustainable Growth: Utilizing NATCs to fund renewable energy and smart infrastructure projects that align with global sustainability goals.
3. Economic Empowerment: Supporting initiatives that drive self-sufficiency and prosperity within Native territories.
