

The Riverside Premier Rehabilitation and Healing Center Celebrated 100th Birthday Honoree with a Joyous Celebration

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, January 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New York, NY — On Sunday, January 12th, The Riverside Premier Rehabilitation and Healing Center hosted an unforgettable 100th birthday celebration in honor of beloved resident Lila, surrounded by her family, friends, and community members. The event featured delicious catering, a heartfelt slideshow showcasing Lila's incredible life throughout the decades, and plenty of laughter and joy.

Born and raised in Inwood, NY, Lila built an extraordinary life filled with creativity, passion, and resilience. After starting her career in the fashion industry, Lila transitioned to the Diamond District, where she established herself as a talented custom jewelry designer. Her artistic flair extended into her personal life as well, with a deep appreciation for antiques and Art Deco design.

Lila's commitment to family and tradition has been a cornerstone of her remarkable life. Known for her legendary briskets and other Jewish culinary delights, she often brought loved ones together over meals.

Among the cherished memories shared during her celebration was a special moment with her great-grandson, Nico. After nine years at The Riverside, Lila was lovingly convinced by her grandson to venture outside to meet Nico for the first time—a touching experience she treasures.
