

Synthetica and Alterica: Silicon Valley International Contemporary Art Review Exhibition Successfully Underway

Celebrating 45 award-winning artists from 17 countries, exploring creativity, innovation, and cultural connections in a digital age.

SILICON VALLEY, CA, UNITED STATES, January 23, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In an era defined by technological advancements that touch every aspect of human life, the Synthetica and Alterica – Silicon Valley International Contemporary Art Review Exhibition explores the profound relationship between modern technology and the human experience. Hosted by ArtX Gallery and sponsored by the UCC Foundation, the exhibition invites global audiences to examine how technology shapes creativity, identity, and the dynamics of inclusion and exclusion in today's digital world.

Synthetica highlights works that integrate technological elements into artistic expression, showcasing the harmony between innovation and creativity. Meanwhile, Alterica challenges viewers to reflect on technology's role in connecting and dividing societies, creating spaces of belonging while also emphasizing difference and exclusion.

This year's exhibition has received
