

Grammy-Nominated Jazz Trombonist Hank Bilal to Celebrate His Birthday with a Special Performance at Roscoe's Jazz Lounge

Celebrate Grammy Weekend with an Unforgettable Evening of Jazz, Soul, and Spoken Word at Roscoe's Jazz Lounge in Long Beach

LONG BEACH, CA, UNITED STATES, January 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Grammy-nominated jazz trombonist Hank Bilal will bring the funk, soul, and celebration to Roscoe's Jazz Lounge in Long Beach, CA, on February 1, 2025, at 8 PM, as he hosts a special birthday performance. The event promises a night of electrifying music, and soulful spoken word, all set against the backdrop of Grammy weekend.

Hank Bilal, a South Carolina native known for his smooth yet dynamic sound, will perform fan favorites and original compositions alongside Jermone Randall and Friends, with the evening hosted by jazz vocalist Castella. The celebration will also feature special guest Zemill, who will perform spoken word pieces to complement the night's groovy and soulful vibes.

"This event will be my way of celebrating my upcoming birthday, which is January 31," shared Hank Bilal. "I said I was going to go to the Grammys for my next birthday because both events are a few days away from each other. Since I was already going to be in the area, I reached out to management for Roscoe's Jazz Lounge in Long Beach, and they agreed to let me have a show there."

Adding to the celebration, Zemill expressed his enthusiasm, saying, "I'm honored and excited to join the great Hank Bilal for his Jazzy Celebration Grammy Weekend! It's gonna be a hot and
