PACE Anti-Piracy celebrates its 40th anniversary at The NAMM Show alongside several anniversary milestones for its iLok, JUCE, and ADC brands.

Explore the future of anti-piracy solutions and witness the unveiling of innovative products designed to empower software publishers. The NAMM 2025 exhibition marks a pivotal moment for PACE, as it introduces a suite of new software security offerings that promise to redefine industry standards. With 12 million users, over 250 million licenses issued, and security for more than 20,000 products, PACE continues to lead the charge in protecting revenue for its publishers.

iLok License Delivery App for Shopify Adds Subscription Support

The iLok License Delivery App for Shopify now supports subscriptions, offering software publishers a secure and efficient way to deliver licenses and increase sales. This integration enables publishers to offer recurring subscriptions, delivering licenses directly to customers' iLok accounts without activation codes or complicated processes.

Powered by the trusted iLok Licensing platform with over 12 million users, the app simplifies license management and enhances customer satisfaction. Publishers can also choose to integrate PACE's Fusion Security for an added layer of software protection. Quick to install and easy to use, it's an ideal solution for subscription-based models.
