Town Physical Therapy Expands Services in Paramus:
Now Offering More Treatments and Welcoming Walk-In Patients

“We’re thrilled to offer even more ways to help our patients get back to doing what they love, whether they are recovering from an injury, surgery, or managing a chronic condition,” said Shalin Patel, founder of Town Physical Therapy. “The addition of more services and the ability to welcome walk-ins is our way of making physical therapy more accessible to everyone in the Paramus area.”

At Town Physical Therapy, each patient receives individualized attention and a customized treatment plan tailored to their specific needs and goals. The team of physical therapists utilizes the latest techniques and technology to help patients recover from injuries, manage pain, and improve mobility and strength. With the new location in Paramus, Town Physical Therapy is committed to providing the highest quality of care to the community and helping individuals live their best lives.

Physical injuries are common, irrespective of age. What is crucial is the treatment you receive from your therapist.”

Shalin Patel

In addition to the expanded services, Town Physical Therapy is now welcoming walk-in patients. Whether it’s for a quick consultation, injury assessment, or a more urgent therapy need, individuals can simply walk in and receive the care they need without the hassle of appointments or long wait times.
