Educating Customers and Reducing Stigma

Cannabis 21's focus on education is another factor that sets it apart. Many customers come in with questions about cannabis, whether about specific products, dosages, or methods of use.

Looking to relax with an indica or ease pain with CBD? We've got you covered. Our goal is to create a space where you feel welcome, informed, and valued—perfect for finding exactly what you need.”

Arnie Bossard said, Owner of Cannabis 21 Dispensary,

The dispensary's friendly staff is trained to answer questions clearly and without judgment. This creates a welcoming space for all customers.

Beyond individual consultations, Cannabis 21 works to increase understanding of cannabis through community outreach. These efforts include programs to raise awareness about cannabis laws, safety, and the potential benefits and risks of use. Cannabis 21 promotes honest, fact-based talks. This helps reduce stigma and encourages more acceptance of cannabis in the community.

Supporting the Local Economy

Cannabis 21's contributions extend beyond its role as a retailer. The dispensary plays a part in strengthening the local economy by sourcing products from nearby growers and hiring staff from the region. These efforts support job creation and provide opportunities for career growth within the Twin Harbors area.

Additionally, Cannabis 21 is involved in community initiatives, offering support to local programs that benefit the region. By joining these efforts, the dispensary shows it cares about being more than just a business. It wants to be a positive force in the community.

Milestones and Recognition

Since its founding, Cannabis 21 has consistently earned accolades for its dedication to service and quality. In 2020, the dispensary was named "Best Overall Business" in the Twin Harbors area, marking a significant achievement for a cannabis business. It has also expanded its reach by opening locations in Hoquiam and Ocean Shores, broadening its impact in the region.

Winning "Best on the Twin Harbors" for five consecutive years speaks to the consistency of Cannabis 21's efforts. Customers recognize the dispensary not only for its products but also for its focus on education and compliance. This trust has helped Cannabis 21 become a cornerstone of the local cannabis industry.
