As an advocate for holistic wellness, Mrs. Coulson has emerged as a leader in women's health, driven by her personal experiences and belief in the body's natural ability to heal. Her journey began with hormonal health challenges, where she turned to naturopathic solutions that aligned with her body's rhythms. This pivotal experience inspired her mission to empower women to reconnect with their bodies, trust their intuition, and reclaim their health.

As the Founder of Holistic Goddess, Mrs. Coulson created a platform where women can explore natural wellness solutions tailored to every stage of life. The company offers a Signature Collection of holistic products alongside a carefully curated marketplace of Trusted Brands, providing women with transparent, effective resources to support their health journeys. At its core, Holistic Goddess is rooted in the belief that healing is an ongoing process that nurtures the body, mind, and spirit.

Inspired by her husband, Foster Coulson, Founder of The Wellness Company, Mrs. Coulson built Holistic Goddess as a sanctuary for women seeking support outside traditional healthcare systems. Her passion for holistic wellness continues to drive innovation and impact in the industry.

In addition to this prestigious recognition, Mrs. Coulson is under consideration for the Empowered Woman Award and will be featured in TIP (Top Industry Professionals) Magazine for her ongoing contributions to holistic wellness.

Stephanie Cirami, President of IAOTP, stated:

"Choosing Mrs. Coulson for this honor was an easy decision for our panel. She is an influential leader and visionary in the field of holistic health. We look forward to celebrating her achievements at this year's gala."

When not leading Holistic Goddess, Mrs. Coulson cherishes time with her family, embracing simple, grounding activities like gardening and caring for their flock of silkie chickens. A passionate advocate for women's health, she continues to inspire through her work in the holistic wellness community.
