different locations, so grateful for them and their heroic work. We also invited different individuals who commit different acts of courage, such as saving animals, human lives or properties, or just taking care of others by serving food or clothing. All these individuals for their courage and their compassion, will be gifted like stars. Last, each table in the suite will be equipped with different GoFundMe, where the DPA guests will be able to donate money to help families in need. Some of these evacuees and victims, are also cordially invited to retrieve some of our gifts. Adam Ballou, famous for its messages of compassion, empathy, kindness, and understanding on its tee shirts, curated a special gift bag, as well as a new patch "from ashes LA rises", available to the DPA guests in support of all the fires victims.

All the brands were carefully sourced by Dubois herself, and the suite as usual will have a very international : Selected nominees could leave with a stay at le Taha'a by Pearl Resorts in French Polynesia.
