PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, January 28, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Insigniam is proud to announce that Will Parish, a management consultant and distinguished global team leader, has been selected for the HillVets LEAD Fellowship program. This prestigious program aims to empower veterans with the tools and opportunities needed to succeed in leadership positions that impact national policy and public service.

Mr. Parish brings over a decade of experience in global management, strategic relations, and innovative solutions, having worked at the U.S. Department of State and the U.S. Navy. As a consultant at Insigniam, a leading global management consulting firm specializing in organizational breakthrough, innovation, and transformation, Mr. Parish collaborates with senior executives to achieve breakthrough results that drive lasting success for both organizations and their teams.

Mr. Parish started his career as a Naval Flight Officer flying the F-14D and F/A-18F aboard aircraft carriers in the Persian Gulf and went on to have a distinguished 21-year career in the Navy. He has also served as a Director, of U.S. Naval Forces Europe–Africa, positioned in Catania, Italy as well as Director, of the Office of Defense Cooperation at the U.S. Embassy in Freetown, Sierra Leone, and as Congressional Advisor at the U.S. Department of State. Before joining Insigniam, he served as the Director, of the Office of Defense Cooperation at the U.S. Embassy in Mexico City, Mexico.

"I'm honored to be selected for the HillVets Fellowship program and look forward to collaborating with fellow emerging leaders who are committed to making a difference in public service," said Mr. Parish. "The program presents a unique opportunity to further develop my leadership skills and contribute to transforming leadership practices across sectors."

The fellowship program provides an immersive curriculum that includes six events with renowned speakers, as well as continuous mentorship and networking opportunities. HillVets' dynamic approach is designed to help participants grow as leaders, develop their professional brand, and foster lasting relationships within the HillVets community.
