Recent Honors and Achievements of Commissioner George Mentz

This recognition comes on the heels of other recent achievements. Commissioner Mentz has been named a key member of the leadership & committee posts of Phi Delta Phi (ΦΔΦ) International Law Body, the oldest international honor society, founded in 1869 where many members are prominent international lawyers, judges, diplomats, and government servants from around the globe. Phi Delta Phi holds its members to the highest academic and ethical standards, and Commissioner Mentz is proud to be part of this esteemed organization.

In addition, the Hon. George Mentz was recently conferred by the Commonwealth government with the highest civilian award and prestigious title of Kentucky Colonel, a Commission that confers the distinction of "Honorable " and a Good Will Ambassador in recognition of his outstanding contributions to global education and service to aspiring students worldwide. In recent years, Mentz has been awarded Top 50 Thought Leader Awards in specializations including: HR, Project Management, Wealth Management, Sustainability, and Finance.

Commissioner Mentz has also made significant contributions to the U.S. government, serving as a High Federal Commissioner for the White House and Presidential Scholars Commission under the President and U.S. Department of Education, which manages a budget exceeding $268 billion annually. He is currently in office as a government Commissioner for both the Airport Commission, home to Space Force Peterson Base, and the Civil Service Commission in Colorado Springs. These positions have a 6 + billion annual impact in local economies and the lives of thousands of public servants and citizens.

Beyond his governmental and academic work, Commissioner Mentz is a philanthropist and board member of The TRE Resource Exchange, an organization that invested over $100 million in the last 3 years to assist citizens with disabilities in the local community. He is also Chancellor and Presiding Legal Officer and International Lawyer of the Worldwide Anglican Church, operating in over 40 countries, and serves as a goodwill ambassador.

Career in Law and Education

Mentz's legal career spans international litigation involving defamation, fraud, intellectual property, and class action lawsuits. He is the founder of Mentz Law Firm, a consumer protection firm that serves clients around the world. Comm'r Mentz's charitable efforts and expertise has earned him the high noble title of Datuk Seri from the Raj/Sultan for his efforts in fostering interfaith harmony and global education. The Datuk Seri title, akin to a Count or Graf rank in European nobility, is the highest honor for a non-citizen for service to humanity.

In education, Commissioner Mentz is one of the few law professors in the USA to have taught over 300 courses in law and business at accredited universities and graduate schools. He is a prolific author, having published over 140 books and audiobooks on topics ranging from international law to philosophy, human potential, and metaphysics. Mentz and his companies are ISO 9001, ISO 21001, and ISO 29993 Certified and SiS Cert Sanctioned with accreditation standards recognition agreements with the ECLBS, QAHE, MACCA and ACBSP.

A Longstanding Legacy
