

Public Notice: Arbitration Award in Favor of Crestcom International LLC (Judicial Arbiter Group No. 21-1673A)

GREENWOOD VILLAGE, CO, UNITED STATES, February 4, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Crestcom International LLC, a global leader in management training, announces a favorable arbitration award in its action against Hisham A. "Sean" Dabbagh and Al-ADL International Training Company, LLC (ADL) in Saudi Arabia. The arbitration was initiated due to violations of a prior Final Arbitration Award by Consent.

CRESTCOM®

Specifically, Mr. Dabbagh and ADL used Crestcom's proprietary materials, trademarks, and email addresses without Crestcom's knowledge or approval, in violation of the permanent injunctions in place. Crestcom was awarded $259,721.97 USD in damages, including its attorney's fees and costs to pursue its claims.

Mr. Dabbagh and ADL are jointly and severally liable for their actions. Crestcom intends to pursue collection in Saudi Arabia if Mr. Dabbagh chooses not to honor the arbitration award. Crestcom will issue a follow-up notice if it becomes necessary to institute a collection action to enforce the award in Saudi Arabia.

The decision reinforces Crestcom's unwavering commitment to protecting its intellectual property from any misuse or infringement.

Crestcom remains steadfast in upholding the integrity of its business and will continue to pursue legal action against any parties that violate its rights or breach their agreements in order to safeguard its franchise system, its franchisees, and their investments.

If you or your company are aware of any further violations or if you believe that you or your company are currently participating in unlawfully copied Crestcom or Bullet Proof® Manager programs by Mr. Dabbagh, Al-ADL International Training Company, or any third party, please notify us using the contact information provided below.
