COOKSTOWN, NJ, UNITED STATES, February 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Step into a world of daring adventure and heartfelt connections with Bill Spies in “One Boy, One Pony, Two Girls.” Set against the backdrop of 16th-century America, this captivating story follows a young Powhatan Indian boy, Tangtok, and his unexpected bond with a shipwrecked paint filly named Bakting. Together, they navigate the challenges of survival, cultural divides, and a rapidly changing world.

The story begins with the filly’s perilous journey across the ocean to what is now Assateague Island, where she is discovered by Tangtok, who names her Bakting. Over time, Tangtok and Bakting form a deep, unspoken bond, one that leads them into adventures filled with danger, loyalty, and heroism.
