More than 300 members are expected to volunteer and donate over 10,000 hours.

"Boca West is dedicated to serving our local community and Hope Week gives our club members the opportunity to learn about a number of non-profits while making a difference," said Matthew Linderman, CCM, President, COO and General Manager of Boca West Country Club. "Club members often ask how they can serve the local community and are so grateful for the opportunity to participate in Hope Week."

Here's what Boca West Country Club members will be doing for each non-profit:

January 27, 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.--Gilda Mallin Boca West Chapter of Hadassah, Fazio Room, Boca West Country Club Golf & Activities Center

Volunteers will make items for Fuller Center and Place of Hope (The Leighan and David Rinker Campus), as well as Gandel Rehabilitation Center and Hadassah Hospital in Israel.

January 27, 1-4 p.m.—Boca West Children's Foundation, Fazio Room, Boca West Country Club Golf & Activities Center
Volunteers will sort, label and pack backpacks with school supplies.

January 28, 3-5 p.m.—Fuller Center, 200 N.E. 14th Street, Boca Raton (East Campus)

Volunteers will create inspirational bracelets with the Center's afterschool students. The bracelets, filled with well wishes, will be given to patients at Lynn Cancer Institute.

January 29, 11:15 a.m.- 1 p.m.—Literacy Coalition of Palm Beach County, Blue Lake Elementary School, 799 Banyan Trail, Boca Raton
Volunteers will read one on one or with a small group of elementary students and participate in activities with the kids. The kids will get to keep a copy of the book and take home the activity.

January 30, 7:30 a.m.- 2 p.m.—Habitat for Humanity Home Build—Greater Palm Beach County, South Bay
Members will work alongside Habitat families on a siding project.

January 30—Place of Hope, The Leighan & David Rinker Campus, 21441 Boca Rio Road, Boca Raton

Volunteers will sort and organize clothing, children's items, diapers and more to be distributed to the children as well as clean out the non-perishable food pantry.

January 31—Boca Helping Hands, 1500 N.W. 1st Court, Boca Raton, 1-3 p.m.
