The event will be Emcee'd by five-time Emmy Award winning journalist, Kristen Thorne. There will also be a special musical performance by MELINA. Melina is a singer-songwriter based in New York City. Her voice has been featured on multi-platinum recordings and soundtracks. She has toured throughout the USA and Europe. Additionally, her voiceover talent has appeared on many USA and international ad campaigns.

Attendees will also have the opportunity to explore curated artwork and meet emerging jewelry designers. This dynamic convergence of style, creativity and culture will offer a unique platform for fashion enthusiasts, media professionals and industry insiders to discover current trends and form valuable connections.

This event aims to underscore the synergy between fashion, art and jewelry, illustrating how each element enriches the others. Diana Mahrach Couture seeks to elevate the conversation around couture by infusing classic techniques with contemporary aesthetics, while partnering artists and jewelers demonstrate the broader cultural impact of creative collaboration.

New York remains a global hub for emerging talent, and “Fashion, Arts, Jewelry” offers a rare glimpse into the city’s vibrant creative community. By bringing these elements together, the evening highlights the powerful role each plays in shaping modern style.

The event Located in the heart of Midtown Manhattan, at 3 West Club is a landmark venue known for its distinctive architecture and refined ambiance. With its elegant event spaces, the club has hosted numerous social and cultural gatherings over the decades, making it the perfect setting for a night dedicated to high fashion, cutting-edge art and striking jewelry design.
