/EINPresswire.com/ -- StarWind, a leading provider of hyperconverged infrastructure (HCI) for Enterprise ROBO, SMB, & Edge, announces its participation in IT Partners 2025. The event, taking place at the Paris La Défense Arena from February 5 to 6, provides digital transformation professionals with an exceptional platform for networking and collaboration.

At booth #B018, StarWind will present its latest IT infrastructure products, including the HCI Appliance (HCA), Virtual SAN (VSAN), Backup Appliance (BA), and Virtual Tape Library (VTL). These solutions are designed to simplify IT operations, improve infrastructure performance, and ensure robust data protection.

"IT Partners 2025 offers a fantastic opportunity to connect, collaborate, and share ideas," said Artem Berman, Co-Founder and Managing Partner at StarWind. "We're looking forward to engaging with industry professionals, showing the value of our products, and having meaningful conversations about the future of IT."

Now in its 19th edition, IT Partners continues to offer a distinctive platform for exploring the latest technological advancements.

"IT Partners highlights the strength of human connections, which remain an essential driver for development in digital and IT," said Jean-François Sol Dourdin, Director of IT Partners. "After the success of 2024, we wanted to create a modernized and even more immersive format for an exceptional event dedicated to our exhibitors and visitors."
