What are the primary factors driving the growth of the nulojix market?

An increased prevalence of chronic kidney disease is expected to fuel growth in the nulojix market. The rise in chronic kidney disease is a long-term condition where the kidneys gradually lose their ability to filter waste and maintain essential body functions, often resulting in serious health complications.

The growing incidence of the disease, primarily attributable to aging populations, underlying health conditions, and limited early diagnosis, is driving demand for effective chronic kidney disease management and treatments. Nulojix, an immunosuppressive medication, improves long-term outcomes for patients managing chronic conditions requiring transplantation, ultimately enhancing their quality of life.

Which are the major companies operating in the nulojix market?

The nulojix market features some major players, with Bristol-Myers Squibb leading the pack.
