Strategies Kerry Brett Would Love to Share:

Expert Dating App Tips: Navigating dating apps confidently starts with a standout, picture-perfect profile. Kerry shares how to build your online brand, choose the proper photographs that set you apart, and open doors to dating success. Most people underestimate the power of their profile picture: Kerry will share how to make your profile so irresistible it breaks the internet.

The Power of Perseverance, Personality, and Putting Yourself Out There:

Confidence is everything—how you feel about yourself is how you'll be perceived and treated. You have just 60 seconds to make a first impression, and it's not about what you say—it's about how you show up. Kerry reveals why authenticity, humor, and vulnerability are the secret weapons of successful dating. She'll also share how to approach online dating like a CEO and run your dating business like a girl boss.

Her Inspiring Journey: Kerry didn't just talk the talk—she walked the walk. She took a leap of faith as an early evolution dating app user, dating on Tinder at age 43 as a working single mother. She knows firsthand that swiping right can change your life. If she can do it, so can you.

Why Dating Apps Work:

You don't have to use a dating app to find love—but Kerry believes they make it easier. Love can be found anywhere: on Tinder, Whole Foods, Lowe's, Planet Fitness, or the Bristol Lounge at The Four Seasons in Boston.

It all comes down to your belief system—if you think it will happen, it will. Kerry shares how the Law of Attraction, vibration, and frequency play a crucial role in dating success. You attract what you radiate. You don't have to be perfect to be amazing!—You have to try, give yourself a chance, and stop holding yourself back. Sometimes, it's that simple.
