

ALL POINTS PARTNERS WITH LEIDOS TO PROVIDE SPACE CARGO MISSION SUPPORT FOR NASA

All Points awarded a new Cargo Mission Contract (CMC4) subcontract to provide services to Leidos supporting NASA projects, including ISS and Artemis programs.

MERRITT ISLAND, FL, UNITED STATES, January 29, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- All Points Logistics, LLC (All Points) is proud to announce they have been awarded a new Cargo Mission Contract (CMC4) subcontract to provide services to Leidos supporting NASA projects, including the International Space Station (ISS) and the Artemis Exploration Program. All Points will perform processing activities for cargo delivery to space and related engineering support for flight hardware.

The CMC4 effort will focus on Pressurized Cargo Integration and Systems Engineering and Integration Support, beginning October 2025. All Points will provide a variety of technical support services, including pre-launch cargo preparation services at its planned processing facilities at Kennedy Space Center, as well as Operations Control Center services to manage operations process flow and conduct pre-launch test and checkout.

"We are excited about this new partnership with Leidos," shared All Points CEO Phil Monkress. "This new contract will allow All Points and our Space Prep division to provide cost-effective engineering and payload processing solutions to Leidos to support NASA's International Space Station, Commercial LEO Destinations, and Artemis Exploration programs."
