

FLYHOUSE APPOINTS FORMER U.S. AMBASSADOR NOAH MAMET TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

FlyHouse Names Former U.S. Ambassador Noah Mamet to Board, Expanding Global Reach.

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, UNITED STATES, January 30, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- FlyHouse, a leader in private aviation, is pleased to announce the appointment of former U.S. Ambassador to Argentina, Noah B. Mamet, to its Board of Directors. With extensive experience in global business, diplomacy, and government affairs, Mamet will play a key role in expanding FlyHouse's international presence and strengthening strategic industry relationships.

Noah brings a wealth of experience from his time as U.S. Ambassador to Argentina, where he built strong international relationships and led multi-national initiatives. As an entrepreneur at heart, Noah has successfully scaled businesses, including serving as a Government Affairs consultant for SpaceX, and knows what it takes to drive growth, making him a key addition to expanding FlyHouse's reach and continuing its global growth.

"We're thrilled to welcome Noah Mamet to the FlyHouse Board," said Jack E. Lambert, Jr., Chief Executive Officer of FlyHouse. "Noah's global business expertise and ability to build meaningful connections will be key to taking FlyHouse to the next level and expanding our reach worldwide."

As a member of the Board of Directors, Noah will be instrumental in strengthening FlyHouse's international partnerships, connecting with new partners, and helping guide the company's global strategy. FlyHouse remains committed to providing an exceptional, customer-first private aviation experience, and with Noah's leadership, the company will expand that vision to international markets.

"I'm excited to join the FlyHouse team as a Board Member," said Ambassador Mamet. "FlyHouse is, without question, the most innovative company in private aviation today. I look forward to helping the company grow exponentially, both in the U.S. and internationally, as we expand our reach to clients and partners around the globe."

FlyHouse is redefining the private aviation experience by making luxury travel more accessible, seamless, and efficient. With Ambassador Noah B. Mamet on the Board, the company is positioned for even greater growth and success in the year ahead.
