

The Chopin Law Firm Partners with Second Harvest Food Bank to Support Families in Need

The Chopin Law Firm Partners with Second Harvest Food Bank for a Day of Service

NEW ORLEANS, LA, UNITED STATES, January 31, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- This past weekend, The Chopin Law Firm proudly participated in the New Orleans Bar Association's Day of Service, joining fellow volunteers at Second Harvest Food Bank of Greater New Orleans & Acadiana to help provide food for those in need.

The Chopin team spent the day packing boxes of essential supplies for families in the New Orleans area, contributing to Second Harvest's mission of fighting hunger and uplifting the local community. The event brought together legal professionals and community members, reinforcing the importance of service, teamwork, and giving back.

"At The Chopin Law Firm, we believe in the power of community," said a representative of the firm. "It was an honor to work alongside Second Harvest and our fellow legal professionals to support local families. We are truly grateful for the opportunity to contribute to such an impactful cause."
