

Doubling Down on Simplicity, KLIKLink AV delivers Seamless Collaboration Connectivity

Making it easy for people to collaborate in Classrooms, Meeting Rooms, Conference Facilities, and Event Spaces.

SEATTLE, WA, UNITED STATES, February 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- KLIK, a leader in wireless screen sharing technology, is set to introduce its latest innovation, KLIKLink AV, in booth 8C500 at the ISE 2025 show in Barcelona, Spain, from February 4-7, 2025. KLIKLink AV is a groundbreaking product that streamlines how users connect to AV technology in classrooms, meeting rooms, and event spaces with its seamless plug-and-play functionality.

KLIKLink AV simplifies collaboration in any environment.

“We’ve spent a decade pushing the boundaries of collaboration technology, but as tools grow increasingly complex, our focus has shifted to ensuring the best possible user experience,” states Costa Lakoumentas, CEO & Founder of KLIK. KLIKLink AV puts advanced video conferencing, multicasting, live streaming, and more, in the hands of end users with unprecedented simplicity of operation.”

KLIK Link AV is all about simplicity and reliability. No learning curve, no complicated setup—just instant, professional-grade collaboration.”
