VIRGINIA BEACH, VA, UNITED STATES, February 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Universal Pest & Termite Raises Awareness on the Cost of Termite Damage in Virginia Beach, Chesapeake, Newport News and Surrounding Cities

As Universal Pest & Termite celebrates its 25 year anniversary, the company is shedding light on a pressing issue that affects many homeowners in Virginia Beach, Chesapeake, Newport News and surrounding cities - the cost of termite damage. According to recent studies, termites cause an estimated $5 billion in property damage each year in the United States, with Virginia being one of the top 10 states with the highest termite activity. However, what many homeowners may not realize is that their typical home owners insurance policy does not cover termite damage.

It's important for homeowners to know how much damage termites can cause and why their homeowners policy more than likely does not cover it.”

George Pilkington

Termites are small but mighty creatures that can cause significant damage to a home's structure, furniture, and other belongings. They feed on wood and can go undetected for years, causing extensive damage before being discovered. In Virginia, the most common type of termite is the Eastern Subterranean termite, which can cause damage to homes in as little as three months. With an average cost of $3,000 to repair termite damage, the financial burden can be overwhelming for homeowners.

Unfortunately, many homeowners are not aware that their home owners insurance policy does
