Breezeline's product offerings include Fiber and Shared Fiber solutions, available under both Dedicated and Best Efforts categories within CableFinder. With these new serviceability options, CableFinder users can quickly search an address and receive precise results for Breezeline's connectivity solutions when within the Breezeline footprint.

Once identified, users can seamlessly request pricing through their TSD to access Breezeline's competitive pricing and robust product lineup.

Why It Matters

The addition of Breezeline reflects CableFinder's ongoing commitment to expanding its portfolio to deliver greater choice, flexibility, and value for its users. By integrating Breezeline's cutting-edge connectivity solutions, CableFinder continues to support its mission of empowering businesses with reliable and efficient tools to meet their connectivity needs.

"Breezeline's inclusion in the CableFinder platform represents an exciting step forward for our users," said Jed Kenzy, Managing Partner, CableFinder "This partnership underscores our dedication to providing comprehensive solutions that help businesses thrive in today's digital landscape."
