

THIRTY SAINTS PRODUCTIONS ANNOUNCES LICENSING AVAILABILITY FOR CHRISTINE TOY JOHNSON'S PLAY "THE SECRET WISDOM OF TREES"

A compelling 80-minute dramedy exploring the enduring power of love through memory, family bonds, and healing.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, February 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Thirty Saints Productions proudly introduces the newest addition to its theatrical licensing catalog, "The Secret Wisdom of Trees" by award-winning playwright Christine Toy Johnson. This compelling 80-minute dramedy explores the enduring power of love through memory, family bonds, and healing. Following successful workshops at The Barrow Group and Florida Studio Theatre, this intimate ensemble piece offers theaters a contemporary work that speaks to multi-generational audiences.

I could not be more thrilled that Christine Toy Johnson is our first playwright to join the Thirty Saints Productions licensing family.”

James A. Rocco, CEO, Thirty Saints Productions

The Secret Wisdom of Trees now available for licensing.

The play follows Abby Green, a spirited 67-year-old woman who plants trees at locations of her most significant memories as she prepares for her journey with early-onset Alzheimer's. When tragedy strikes and family conflicts arise, the story weaves through time and memory to explore what remains when memories begin to fade.

"The Secret Wisdom of Trees" features:

- A cast of 7 (2F, 5M) with rich roles for actors of varying ages

- A flexible staging design adaptable to various theater spaces
- Universal themes of family, legacy, and unconditional love
- Contemporary relevance dealing with aging, family dynamics, and healing
- Running time of 80 minutes (no intermission)

The play was honored as a Semi-Finalist for the 11th annual Jewish Playwriting Contest, praised for its "...deeply moving tribute to a family coming to terms with multiple kinds of losses."
