"We are excited to welcome Jessica to Jimerson Birr as we continue to expand our reach across Florida. Her extensive experience in complex commercial and real estate litigation, along with her strategic approach to client advocacy, makes her a valuable addition to our team. With Jessica based in Tampa, we are further strengthening our ability to serve clients throughout the region, providing the high-quality representation that defines our firm," said Managing Partner, Brandon Meadows.

In addition to her litigation practice, Mazariego is a skilled appellate attorney who has successfully argued before the Fifth District Court of Appeals in Florida. She is also deeply involved in legal education and mentorship, serving on the Florida Bar's Law Related Education Committee and participating in the Moot Court Competition Subcommittee. Mazariego is an active member of the Hillsborough County Bar Association and the Trial Lawyers Section of the Florida Bar, further demonstrating her leadership within the legal community. She earned her Juris Doctor cum laude from Stetson University College of Law, where she was one of a select few students to obtain an International Law Certificate of Concentration.

"I am excited to join Jimerson Birr and contribute to the firm's tradition of excellence in complex commercial and real estate litigation," stated Mazariego. "My approach to litigation is rooted in strategic advocacy and collaboration, ensuring that clients receive not only strong legal representation but also practical solutions that align with their business goals. I look forward to working alongside this talented team to deliver results-driven strategies that protect and advance our clients' interests."
