navigate regulatory and operational challenges.

Attendees at the MBA Servicing Solutions Conference can schedule one-on-one meetings with AskTuring.ai's team to discuss their private, secure, custom AI implementation integration. The MBA event, expected to draw thousands of servicing professionals, will feature insights on operational efficiency, regulatory compliance and emerging technologies. AskTuring.ai's participation underscores the growing role of specialized AI in financial services.

AskTuring.ai is proud to support organizations such as the Mortgage Bankers Association that advance industry practices and education.

The mortgage industry's shift toward AI demands solutions that prioritize security while allowing lenders to harness their data's full potential privately— this balance is non-negotiable.”

Eyal Leeder, Co-Founder, Chief Revenue Officer, AskTuring.ai

AskTuring today announces its founding membership in the Applied AI Association, a global organization committed to best-in-class AI adoption across industries. The Applied AI Association helps companies accelerate growth, foster research and education, develop industry standards, connect member organizations and promote the services of member companies.
