Market Overview

The car rental and leasing services market has witnessed substantial growth over the past decade, driven by increasing urbanization, evolving consumer preferences, and technological advancements. The industry encompasses short-term car rentals and long-term leasing solutions, catering to both individual and corporate customers. With the rising trend of mobility-as-a-service (MaaS), more consumers are opting for rental and leasing options instead of traditional car ownership. Factors such as cost-effectiveness, convenience, and environmental concerns have propelled the adoption of these services worldwide. The market is further fueled by the expansion of ride-hailing and car-sharing platforms, boosting the demand for temporary vehicle usage. Leading players in the industry include Enterprise Holdings, Hertz, Avis Budget Group, Europcar, and Sixt, among others, who are continuously innovating to meet changing consumer needs.
