Furniture, Art, Jewelry & Asian Art Auction – February 21, 9:30 AM PST

The Furniture, Art, Jewelry & Asian Art Auction will feature a diverse selection of fine furniture, luxury collectibles, and decorative arts. Among the standout items is a 1971 Mercedes-Benz 280 SL (W113 Pagoda), a two-door hardtop convertible estimated at $100,000–$120,000. This classic automobile is widely admired for its timeless design and engineering excellence.

The Asian Art segment will showcase a lot of 12 Chinese 24k gold zodiac animal figures, estimated at $40,000–$60,000, and a Chinese famille rose 'Three Rams' vase from the late Qing dynasty, symbolizing prosperity and good fortune. A Chinese embroidered apricot-ground lady's robe adorned with crane motifs, representing longevity, will also be available for bidding.

In the Furniture & Decorative Arts category, collectors can bid on exquisite antique and modern furniture, including pieces from renowned designers Michael Taylor and Parish-Hadley. Additional decorative items include a Louis Vuitton monogram trunk, a range of sterling silver collectibles, and an impressive selection of Native American baskets, textiles, and rugs.

The Jewelry Department will offer an extensive fine jewelry collection featuring gold, diamonds, and signed designer pieces. The sale will include classic and contemporary rings, necklaces, bracelets, and earrings, catering to seasoned collectors and those looking for wearable investment pieces.

The Warehouse Sale – February 22, 9:30 AM PST

The Warehouse Sale provides an excellent opportunity for bidders to acquire fine art, prints, jewelry, and decorative arts at accessible price points. Each month, this sale presents a curated mix of paintings, sculptures, and unique collectibles.

In the Asian Art segment, collectors can find Japanese woodblock prints, ceramics, and decorative folding screens, offering insight into East Asian artistic traditions. The Jewelry Department will feature a range of affordable pieces, including diamond, silver, and gold jewelry.

Additionally, the Warehouse Sale will include a broad selection of modern and antique furniture, decorative arts, silver, porcelain, glass, fashion, collectible toys, books, and Indigenous artworks.
