

Parrish and Venice Named Top Commercial Real Estate Markets for 2024

BRADENTON, FL, UNITED STATES, February 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Sarasota-Manatee region continues to attract national attention as Parrish and Venice were recently highlighted among the strongest commercial real estate markets for 2024. This recognition, as reported by the Sarasota Herald-Tribune, emphasizes the significant growth and development in these two thriving Florida communities.

Stan Rutstein, a leading commercial real estate agent in the Sarasota-Manatee area, commends the acknowledgment of these markets and sees it as a reflection of the region's vibrant economic activity. "Parrish and Venice have been on an upward trajectory for years, and it's exciting to see their potential being recognized on a national scale," said Rutstein. "These areas are not just growing—they're evolving into key economic drivers for Southwest Florida."

The Herald-Tribune article attributes the success of Parrish and Venice to factors such as robust residential growth, infrastructure development, and their ability to attract new businesses. Parrish, known for its rapidly expanding neighborhoods, offers significant opportunities for retail and commercial spaces to meet the needs of its growing population. Venice, with its blend of historical charm and modern infrastructure, continues to draw investors and developers.

"Parrish is a hotspot for businesses looking to serve a booming residential market," Rutstein explained. "On the other hand, Venice combines an appealing lifestyle with strategic development, making it a magnet for companies seeking long-term growth."

Rutstein, who has decades of experience in Florida's commercial real estate market, believes this momentum will only accelerate. "We're seeing increased demand for everything from retail centers to mixed-use developments. The opportunities in Parrish and Venice are endless," he said.

As more attention is drawn to the region, Rutstein encourages investors, developers, and business owners to seize the moment. "Now is the time to act," Rutstein urged. "These markets are only going to grow stronger, and being part of that growth can yield incredible rewards. Let's talk about how to make it happen."
