

Event Driven Daily Launches Coverage of Rafael Holdings Following Cyclo Therapeutics Merger

Jackson, WY – Event Driven Daily, a boutique investment research firm specializing in special situation investing, has initiated coverage of Rafael Holdings following its recent merger with Cyclo Therapeutics.

The strategic merger positions Rafael Holdings to capitalize on significant growth opportunities, including the anticipated completion of its Phase 3 clinical study by summer 2025. With the potential to generate substantial cash flows, Rafael Holdings is expected to attract heightened interest from the investment community. By initiating coverage of Rafael Holdings following its merger with Cyclo Therapeutics, Event Driven Daily reinforces its dedication to identifying exceptional special situations and delivering them to the investment community in a clear and accessible format.

“Our aim is simple. We want to radically reduce the time and effort that it takes you to find high quality special situation investments,” said Evan Bleker, Founder and Chief Executive of Event Driven Daily.

Rafael Holdings is led by Howard Jonas, a highly accomplished entrepreneur and venture investor with a track record of success. The company is currently focused on advancing its Phase 3 clinical study, which is expected to conclude by summer 2025. If successful, the study has the potential to unlock significant cash flow opportunities, positioning Rafael Holdings as an attractive prospect for investors.

Event Driven Daily is dedicated to uncovering high-potential special situations and providing timely insights to its subscribers. Coverage of Rafael Holdings, including an in-depth analysis of its merger with Cyclo Therapeutics, is now available to Event Driven Daily members.
