

The Jazz Sanctuary Hits New Fundraising High, Announces February Concerts in Greater Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, February 5, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Jazz Sanctuary, Philadelphia's most unique performing arts non-profit, recently completed a two-month matching fundraising campaign raising $19,114, a new record for the 14-year old organization.

The Jazz Sanctuary will perform three live, free concerts in the Greater Philadelphia area in February, including appearances in Buckingham, Yardley and Old City Philadelphia.

"Thanks to the generosity of our supporters, we successfully raised $9,557 during our match period—every dollar of which will be matched," said Alan Segal, Founder and Executive Director of The Jazz Sanctuary. "This support allows us to continue bringing live jazz performances to the community through the end of 2025. While February is a lighter month with just three events, we're actively booking more, aiming to grow our schedule from 33 events to at least 50 this year. Despite the cold, we'll be keeping the music 'hot,' and all of us hope to see you at one of our upcoming performances."

This month's slate of performances by musicians from The Jazz Sanctuary includes:

- Thursday, Feb. 13 at Trinity Episcopal Church (Routes 202 & 413, Buckingham, PA 18912). An evening of The Jazz Sanctuary's always popular "Jazz & Joe," with live music, coffee and treats, starts at 7:30 p.m. and features The Jazz Sanctuary Quintet: James Dell'Orefice (piano), Eddie Etkins (saxophone), Leon Jordan Sr. (drums), Alan Segal (bass) and Randy Sutin (vibes/percussion). Admission to this 90-minute event is free of charge.
- Wednesday, Feb. 26 at the Episcopal Church of the Incarnation (1505 Makefield Rd., Morrisville, PA 19067). Another evening of The Jazz Sanctuary's "Jazz & Joe" starts at 7 p.m. . featuring The
