

Alicia Lyttle to Share the Transformative Power of Artificial Intelligence at Carnegie Hall's Power Network Event

Alicia Lyttle to discuss the transformative power of AI in business at Carnegie Hall's Power Network Event, alongside top industry leaders.

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, February 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Carnegie Hall is set to

“

I'm honored to share insights on how AI can drive innovation, equity, and opportunity during this special Black History Month event.”

Alicia Lyttle

host its third annual Power Network event on Thursday, February 27, 2025, at 8:00 PM in the Stern Auditorium / Perelman Stage. This year's event will feature a dynamic blend of musical performances and insightful discussions, highlighting influential figures in business, technology, and artificial intelligence.

Among the distinguished speakers is Alicia Lyttle, CEO and Co-founder of AI InnoVision, a pioneering AI consultancy and education firm. Lyttle is renowned for her expertise in artificial intelligence and commitment to making AI accessible across diverse industries. She will share her insights on the transformative power of AI in modern business practices, demonstrating how AI is revolutionizing entrepreneurship, marketing, and operational efficiency.

The evening will also showcase performances by legendary hip-hop artist Rakim, accompanied by Igmar Thomas' 32-piece Revive Big Band orchestra and DJ Spinderella of Salt-N-Pepa fame. Ed Lover will host the event and feature discussions with other notable figures, including Anish Melwani, Chairman and CEO of LVMH North America; Robert F. Smith, Chairman and CEO of Vista Equity Partners; and Desmond A. Brown, an AI and high-fashion visionary. These conversations will be moderated by Rashad Bilal and Troy Millings, the financial empowerment visionaries behind Earn Your Leisure.

The Power Network event is a cornerstone of Carnegie Hall's Black History Month celebrations, offering a platform for conversations that blend culture, business, and innovation. Attendees can anticipate an evening of enriching dialogue and inspiring performances, highlighting the intersection of artificial intelligence, technology, and economic empowerment.

To purchase tickets for the Power Network event: Event Tickets

About Alicia Lyttle

Alicia Lyttle is an AI strategist, educator, and entrepreneur with over 25 years of experience in business innovation. As CEO & Co-founder of AI InnoVision, she helps businesses leverage artificial intelligence for efficiency, automation, and growth. She also co-founded the International Association of Artificial Intelligence Consultants (IAAIC), which supports AI professionals through certification and collaboration. For more information, visit www.alicialyttle.com

About AI InnoVision

AI InnoVision is a pioneering AI consultancy and education firm that helps businesses and professionals leverage artificial intelligence for productivity, innovation, and growth. Focusing on empowering individuals through training programs, consulting services, and thought leadership, AI InnoVision is committed to making AI accessible and impactful across diverse industries. For more information, visit www.aiinnovision.com.

About Carnegie Hall & Power Network

Since 1891, Carnegie Hall has been a premier destination for world-class performances across music, arts, and culture. Power Network, a project of the Carnegie Hall Cultural Council, brings together industry leaders, entrepreneurs, and visionaries for thought-provoking discussions at the intersection of business, technology, and culture. For more information, visit www.carnegiehall.org.

Lorette Lyttle

AI InnoVision

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

X

LinkedIn

Instagram

YouTube

TikTok

CARNEGIE HALL

Thursday, February 27, 2025 at 8 PM
Stern Auditorium / Perelman Stage

Power Network A Black History Month Conversation and Celebration

MC Rakim | DJ Spinderella | Igmar Thomas' Revive Big Band | Ed Lover, Host

with Panelists
Rashad Bilal and Troy Millings of Earn Your Leisure | Robert F. Smith

Aaliyah Melwani | Alicia Lyttle | Desmond Brown

Additional panelists and artists to be announced

Experience the third edition of Power Network—a groundbreaking Black History Month conversation, celebration, and concert at Carnegie Hall that combines world-class entertainment with invaluable financial insight from business and economic innovators. Host Ed Lover leads a wide-ranging panel of industry leaders, including Chairman and CEO of LVMH (Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton) North America Aaliyah Melwani, alongside Rashad Bilal and Troy Millings—the financial empowerment visionaries of Earn Your Leisure—in eye-opening and candid conversations. Plus, enjoy musical performances by hip-hop legend MC Rakim (one of Billboard's "50 Greatest Rappers of All Time") with Igmar Thomas' 32-piece Revive Big Band orchestra, DJ Spinderella (Salt-N-Pepa), and more!

Tickets start at $50.

Power Network is a project of the Carnegie Hall Cultural Council.

The sponsors:

Power Network - A Black History Month Conversation and Celebration

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2025 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.