The track carries the emotional weight of a Broadway finale while staying true to hip-hop's raw essence. It features an all-star lineup, with White's velvety voice weaving seamlessly between Doodlebug's signature cadence, Adrian's introspective bars, and DJ Skillspinz's precise cuts, all layered over a lush, cinematic production by The Empire.

"Being part of Mother Earth is Dying was powerful for me because it's more than just music—it's a message," says Michole Briana White. "We're blending art and awareness, and I hope listeners feel that urgency in every note and lyric. It's hip-hop with heart, and I'm honored to lend my voice to something that speaks to the soul."
