With a reputation for personalized service and community-driven management, FPS stands apart from larger, corporate firms. As a locally owned and operated company, they bring a level of care and responsiveness that makes a real difference in the lives of residents. Their experienced team specializes in delivering exceptional property management solutions while fostering a welcoming, well-maintained living environment.

“We are thrilled to bring our passion for property management to Palouse Hills Apartments,” said Samantha Bishop, FPS Marketing Manager. “Our team is dedicated to ensuring that residents feel supported, valued, and at home—because great property management is about more than just maintaining buildings, it’s about building communities.”

Under FPS’s leadership, residents of The Landing at Palouse Hills can expect responsive management, well-maintained facilities, and a focus on long-term resident satisfaction. The transition to FPS’s management marks an exciting new chapter for the property, with a renewed focus on quality living and community engagement.
