

Consumer Defense Law Group Saves Homeowner from Trustee Sale by After Loan Servicer Declined Assistance

WHITTIER, CA, UNITED STATES, February 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In another significant victory for homeowners facing Trustee Sale Auctions, Consumer Defense Law Group successfully prevented another trustee sale by circumventing a loans servicer for a distressed Homeowner.

Isaac Gonzalez, a Whittier, California homeowner, purchased his property for $335,000 on October 13, 2004, securing a loan for the full amount. However, after financial hardships led to a Notice of Default on June 5, 2024, followed by a Notice of Trustee Sale scheduled for October 17, 2024, Gonzalez sought urgent assistance to save his home.

On October 5, 2024, he reached out to the Nonprofit Alliance of Consumer Advocates, a foreclosure-prevention nonprofit, for support. Despite their efforts, the loan servicer declined to review his file on October 10, 2024 citing Federal Law requirements to have a file submitted no less than 37 days prior to the Trustee Sale. As the foreclosure deadline loomed, Gonzalez was immediately referred to Consumer Defense Law Group, Owned by Attorney Tony Cara, to take decisive legal action.

In a strategic move, Consumer Defense Law Group filed a lawsuit in the Los Angeles Superior Court (Case #24VECV04907) against the investor of the loan as a Co-defendant hence circumventing the loans Servicing agent. This legal intervention halted the foreclosure process, compelling the investor to negotiate a resolution.

As a result, on November 8, 2024, the investor offered Gonzalez a loan modification, allowing him to retain ownership of his home. His first modified payment is due on December 1, 2024, marking a fresh start and financial stability after years of uncertainty.

"This case is a testament to the power of legal advocacy in protecting homeowners' rights," said Attorney Tony Cara. "By taking swift legal action, we were able to stop an impending foreclosure trustee sale and secure a solution that benefits both the homeowner and the owner of the loan"

For homeowners facing similar foreclosure threats, this case underscores the importance of seeking timely legal assistance. Consumer Defense Law Group remains committed to fighting for homeowners' rights and ensuring they have access to every available legal remedy.

For more information, contact the Nonprofit Alliance of Consumer Advocates at www.NACALaw.org or call 1(855) NACA-HELP

J. De La Vega

NonProfit Alliance of Consumer Advocates

+1 855-622-2435

email us here

Visit us on social media:

Facebook

X

LinkedIn

Instagram

YouTube

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/783813252>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2025 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.