About European Spa Source

At European Spa Source, we believe everyone deserves to relax and enjoy an enhanced sense of wellness. Unfortunately, most of us don't have the time or money for regular spa visits. That's why we created our original Eucalyptus ShowerSpa Mist™—to make spa-quality relaxation accessible to everyone.

With just a few sprays in your daily shower, you can experience the calming effects of premium aromatherapy. It's that simple. Since launching our first ShowerSpa Mist™ in January 2013, we've grown tremendously, offering a variety of carefully crafted products in unique scents, all designed to deliver an affordable yet luxurious spa-like experience right at home.

A Mission Rooted in Care

At European Spa Source, our mission extends beyond self-care—we are deeply committed to giving back. Breast cancer has profoundly touched our family. Three of our sisters, along with several aunts and cousins, have battled or are currently battling this terrible disease. These personal experiences have inspired us to contribute to the fight against cancer in a meaningful way.

We are proud to support the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute, an organization dedicated to groundbreaking research and compassionate patient care. A portion of our profit from sales is donated to help advance life-saving treatments and provide hope to those affected by cancer.

We feel it's important to share that this mission is not just business—it's personal. By integrating wellness into your life with our products, you're also helping us support a cause that is close to our hearts.

A Commitment to Finding the Good

Whether it's creating products that make your daily routine a little more enjoyable or supporting the important work of organizations like Dana-Farber, we believe in making lives better. From self-care to community care, we strive to spread kindness, foster wellness, and make a meaningful impact—one calming spray at a time.

Make every day a spa day.
