With the multiple benefits from this sale ACGX is now in a very favorable position to progress on to our next investment opportunities particularly in the software or services business.”

Paul Sorkin

announce the Company's real estate property located at 6403 N. Wayne Ave & 1324 W. Devon Ave, Chicago, IL has been successfully sold for $3,450,000. This sale now represents a reduction of $3,311,552 in Liabilities from the 9/30/24 Balance Sheet along with $264,243 in cash deposited in the ACGX bank account.

ACGX is now searching to find additional investment opportunities with the net cash proceeds and improved balance sheet from the Chicago property sale to help increase our overall shareholder value. Ideally, we are seeking to acquire majority control of a positive cashflow subscription software or services business to help scale and grow. Our target objective is for an acquisition in the $1 million to $5 million revenue range that has potential for exponential growth.

Our full financial statements, balance sheets, statement of operations, cash flow statement, and disclosure statements are posted on the OTC Market Company website at www.OTCmarkets.com under the stock symbol ACGX in the section for filings and disclosure and on www.ACGX.us in the investor relations section.

Paul Sorkin, CEO of the Alliance Creative Group, Inc. said, "We are excited to have completed the sale of our Chicago real estate property. With the multiple benefits that this sale has delivered to ACGX we are now in a very favorable position to progress on to our next investment opportunities. We are currently reviewing some options but we certainly welcome all assistance from any parties in identifying new investments that would meet our criteria, particularly in the software or services business."

The Company's shares of www.PeopleVine.com continue to be a very rewarding investment for ACGX and the conversations with the growth capital investment groups have been quite beneficial. Our goal is to convert between 20% to 30% of the PeopleVine investment into cash in 2025 so we can use a lot of it to invest in future projects while we let the majority of the shares hopefully continue to increase in value.

About Alliance Creative Group, Inc.

Alliance Creative Group, Inc. (Stock Symbol: ACGX) is a Parent Holding Company on the OTC market. The strategy ACG intends to deploy is a shared resource model where internal divisions, portfolio companies, Real Estate projects, and strategic investments are vertically integrated, optimizing efficiencies and cost savings.
