The King's Speech*

charity event will feature an exclusive screening of the Oscar-winning The King's Speech, benefiting the National Stuttering Association. This intimate evening will include a captivating silent auction and a luxurious VIP Producer's Circle Dinner, with a rare opportunity to engage in a live Q&A with Joan Lane and Simon Egan, two of the brilliant minds who helped bring this cinematic masterpiece to the big screen. The event is a unique, unforgettable celebration of creativity, community, and a powerful cause.

The event will be held at the majestic Historic Palace Arts Center, a beautifully restored venue that perfectly complements the elegance and significance of this special evening. This iconic setting will provide an intimate and immersive atmosphere for guests to enjoy the exclusive screening, VIP dinner, and engaging discussions with the filmmakers behind The King's Speech.

“It's truly an honor to be part of this event,” says Joan Lane, Producer. “This is a wonderful opportunity to not only celebrate the journey of creating The King's Speech but also to support a cause deeply intertwined with the film's core themes and inspiration. Simon and I are excited and humbled to share the behind-the-scenes story with such an engaged and passionate audience.”

“It's a privilege to support the NSA,” adds Simon Egan, Producer. “Hopefully we can inspire others with our experiences turning nightmares into dreams.”

This extraordinary event offers attendees an exclusive, behind-the-scenes look at the creative journey behind this multi-award-winning film—all while championing a profoundly important cause.

“We are beyond thrilled to be part of this special event,” says Tammy Flores, Executive Director of the National Stuttering Association. “Our motto is, ‘If you stutter, you’re not alone,’ and this film embodies that message in a powerful way. It has left a lasting impact on our community, and we are honored to share it in such an intimate and meaningful setting.”

The silent auction will showcase an exciting selection of exclusive items. All proceeds from the auction will directly support the National Stuttering Association’s mission, making a meaningful impact in the lives of those who stutter.
