WILL FAITH OR HUMAN DESIRE PREVAIL?

Danielle Thompson has always been steadfast in her faith, a devout Christian dedicated to living by the values she's held dear for 27 years. But when she crosses paths with her boss, the magnetic and enigmatic Dominic Pascale, her resolve is tested like never before.

Charming, successful and undeniably handsome, Dominic stirs feelings Danielle has never encountered, igniting a powerful attraction that challenges her deeply held convictions. As their connection grows, Danielle finds herself standing at a crossroad, torn between the desire she feels and the commitment she's made to her faith.

Will Danielle find the strength to resist the pull of temptation and hold true to her beliefs? Or will the undeniable chemistry between them lead her down a path she vowed never to take?

Unequally Yoked is a heartfelt exploration of love, faith and the battle between human desire and spiritual devotion.

Ginna Andrew is the author of Unequally Yoked, her debut novel, a work inspired by her deep faith and commitment to sharing stories that uplift and inspire. A devoted Christian, wife, and mother, Ginna balances her family life with a professional career in education.

A law graduate by training, Ginna's true passion lies in encouraging others to live Christ-like lives and embrace the values rooted in biblical teachings. She firmly believes that with faith and determination, anyone can achieve their dreams and fulfil their God-given purpose.

She looks forward to continuing her journey as an author, sharing meaningful stories that reflect hope, faith, and the transformative power of God's love.
