“Our Couples Alcohol Rehab program is tailored to meet the specific needs of partners facing the challenges of alcohol addiction together,” said Clint Kreider, Clinical Director at Still Water Wellness. “We provide a comprehensive approach that includes the treatment of co-occurring disorders and trauma-informed care, ensuring that each individual's needs are met while fostering an environment conducive to mutual healing.”

The program offers a blend of individual therapy, couples therapy, and group sessions, allowing participants to explore the roots of addiction, understand its triggers, and develop healthier coping mechanisms. This approach is complemented by Stillwater Wellness's commitment to trauma-informed care, recognizing that many struggling with addiction have past experiences of trauma that affect their current behaviors and relationships.

Couples enrolled in the Still Water Wellness alcohol rehab in Orange County, California benefit from the expertise of seasoned therapists specializing in addiction and relationship dynamics. The serene setting of the Orange County facility provides a peaceful backdrop for recovery, where couples can remove themselves from daily stressors and focus entirely on their rehabilitation journey.

Choosing Still Water Wellness means access to top-notch medical care, innovative therapy techniques, and a supportive community. The center's commitment to long-term recovery involves continuous follow-up and support, ensuring that couples have the tools they need to maintain their sobriety and nurture their relationship post-rehab.
