

Backyard Terrors Dinosaur Park Introduces Unique Valentine's Day Sponsorship Opportunity

BLUFF CITY, TN, UNITED STATES, February 11, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Backyard Terrors Dinosaur Park in Bluff City, Tennessee, has introduced a new sponsorship initiative for Valentine's Day, allowing visitors to support the park while engaging in a creative and interactive experience.

Participants can choose to sponsor a dinosaur in honor of a loved one, with a custom placard displayed for a month. Alternatively, the park offers a novelty option where individuals can dedicate a sign next to a simulated prehistoric waste display as a playful gesture aimed at an ex-partner.

This initiative serves as a fundraising effort to support the park, which operates on community donations. "We are always looking for ways to engage visitors and create a memorable experience while sustaining our park," said Chris Kastner, creator of Backyard Terrors. "This program allows guests to have fun while contributing to the upkeep of our exhibits."

Sponsorship opportunities are available for a limited time, with funds directly benefiting the continued development and maintenance of the dinosaur park. For more information or to participate in the sponsorship program, visit backyardterrors.com.
