

Florida Counselor Tammy Berman Featured On The Respectful Divorce Podcast

Divorce With Respect Week® is a nationwide effort from March 3-9, 2025 to educate couples about better options for handling their divorce.

FL, UNITED STATES, February 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Florida Counselor and President Of The Collaborative Family Law Professionals Of South Florida Tammy Berman was recently featured on The Respectful Divorce podcast highlighting the upcoming Divorce With Respect Week® initiative. Divorce With Respect Week® is a nationwide effort from March 3-9, 2025 to educate couples about better options for handling their divorce.

“Collaborative Divorce is a better way to help people divorce,” said Berman. “Every step of the way into the collaborative process, I was just more reinforced by how comprehensive, supportive, and just a better way to help people go through something that’s incredibly difficult.”

Collaborative Divorce can be a magical divorce experience”

Tammy Berman

As a mental health professional Berman is a neutral facilitator of the Collaborative Divorce process for divorcing couples. Her job is to help to keep the divorce process moving forward throughout the whole divorce.

“Collaborative Divorce can be a magical divorce experience. It is not easy but when I can help couples hear each other on a deeper level there is an opportunity to help both sides to move on with their lives,” said Berman.

Through her practice My Counseling Connections, Berman is committed to providing therapy for those in need of divorce support, counseling with teens, depression, anxiety, and more. You can learn more about Berman and her team at <https://mycounselingconnections.com/>.
