

Inspira Secures Five-Year Contract Renewal with the University of Auckland

Inspira renews its partnership with The University of Auckland, New Zealand, for an additional three years with a two-year extension option.

OSLO, NORWAY, February 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Inspira, global digital assessment provider, is pleased to announce the renewal of its partnership with The University of Auckland, New Zealand, for an additional three years with a two-year extension option.

This contract extension reinforces the strong collaboration between the partners and underscores Inspira's position as a trusted leader in digital assessment and continued commitment to delivering flexible assessment with integrity.

Since the original contract started in 2020, Inspira has worked closely with Auckland to deliver digital assessments across departments within the University, scaling up to more than 140,000 exam submissions in 2024.

Lisette Montgomerie, Assessment Services Manager says, "At the University of Auckland, we are committed to delivering an excellent digital assessment experience. Inspira provides us with a secure, flexible, scalable, and user-friendly platform. Inspira's comprehensive features and robust infrastructure allow us to provide consistent, high-quality digital assessments for our students."

The renewed agreement includes an intention to collaborate with the University of Auckland on its AI research as part of their technology-enabled learning (TEL) project. This will enable both parties to identify and share the results of this work for use in the development of future Inspera AI products.

"All of us at Inspera are delighted that the University of Auckland has extended its relationship with Inspera for a further five years." says Anthony Brockley, Inspera's Chief Revenue Officer. "This renewal is symbolic of the strategic partnership that has been developed over a number of years through digital assessment services and is also testament to the benefits a digital experience provides to students, university academics, and staff on a daily basis.

"Our thanks to all who have used and adopted the Inspera Assessment product over the past five years at the University of Auckland, and we look forward to delivering great service and an innovative roadmap for the next five years"
