KTS, in partnership with Salesforce Professional Services (SPS), a consultancy within Salesforce, will deliver innovative technology solutions to enhance FEMA's operational capabilities and improve service delivery to communities in need.

“This achievement underscores the power of strategic partnerships, particularly with Salesforce, in driving innovation and efficiency for federal agencies,” said Mia Jordan, Digital Transformation Executive at Salesforce. “By leveraging a world-class technology solution like Salesforce, Koniag is helping USDA and FEMA enhance service delivery, streamline operations, and create meaningful outcomes for the communities they serve.”

“We are honored to support the USDA and FEMA in their mission-critical operations,” said Dustin Sexton, VP and Salesforce Technology Partner Lead at Koniag Government Services. “This milestone win reflects our unwavering commitment to delivering transformative technology solutions that empower federal agencies to better serve the American public. Our collaboration with Salesforce takes our partnership and Salesforce practice to new heights and ensures we bring innovative, scalable solutions to enhance efficiency and resilience in emergency management.”

This award highlights KGS’s continued commitment to delivering high-quality, cutting-edge solutions that support federal agencies’ missions and improve public service outcomes.
