

Sarson Funds and Manifest AI Partner, Leading the Future of AI Beyond Big Tech

Sarson Funds and Manifest AI join forces to drive innovation in decentralized AI, ensuring development remains open, transparent, and accessible.

WEST PALM BEACH, FL, UNITED STATES, February 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- AI is no longer confined to big tech. While demand for computational power skyrockets and access expands, artificial intelligence is moving into the hands of individuals and decentralized networks. As AI shifts beyond big tech, a partnership between Sarson Funds and Manifest AI is actively shaping AI's future, driving innovation in decentralized AI to ensure its growth remains open, inclusive and accessible to all.

"As AI advances beyond traditional corporate control, the opportunity to build decentralized, community-driven solutions has never been greater," said Reed Baum, Director of Research at Sarson Funds. "Through our partnership with Manifest AI, we're accelerating the development of an AI infrastructure that prioritizes transparency, security and innovation."

Manifest AI is redefining the landscape of decentralized AI with its robust, open-source infrastructure designed to empower developers and businesses without the limitations of centralized oversight. By fostering a global community, Manifest AI is removing barriers to AI accessibility and encouraging open innovation.

Sarson Funds, with nearly a decade of experience in blockchain investment and digital asset management, brings institutional expertise to this partnership. Together, the two firms will help drive the next phase of decentralized AI development, creating new opportunities for developers, businesses and investors.
