“Preschool Powered by Play is a community where wonder, curiosity, independent thinking, and exploring are celebrated,” said Shannon Rojecki, Greentribe Director of Early Learning and Museums. “Our beautiful environments support our strong belief that children are capable, creative, inquisitive learners who deserve to have a place to explore and investigate their ideas and wonderings about the world around them. Fostering relationships, building community, and developing a love of learning is at the heart of what we do!”

Preschool Powered by Play is inspired by the Reggio Emilia approach, a philosophy rooted in the belief that children are naturally curious learners. Through exploration, investigation, and collaborative play, children engage in meaningful learning experiences. Teachers act as guides, observing and encouraging inquiry, ensuring that each child's unique spark, gifts, and talents are celebrated within a compassionate, relationship-centered community. Preschool Powered by Play is designed to nurture confident, eager learners and prepares children for their school journey and beyond. The preschool offers three-day and five-day morning sessions for children ages 3 – 5, while toddler classes provide a gentle introduction to learning through play for children ages 2 – 3.
