The event benefited The New York Women's Foundation (NYWF), with a proportion of proceeds directly supporting The NYWF mission, underscoring the impactful connection between fashion and philanthropy to create a more equitable future for women, girls, and gender-expansive individuals.

The event was Emcee'd by five-time Emmy Award winning journalist, Kristen Thorne and there was a special musical performance by MELINA. Melina is a singer-songwriter based in New York City. Her voice has been featured on multi-platinum recordings and soundtracks. She has toured throughout the USA and Europe. Additionally, her voiceover talent has appeared on many USA and international ad campaigns.

Following the fashion show, Diana Mahrach held an awards presentation where she gave special recognition to some of the change-makers in today's scene. Julia Haart and Consuelo Vanderbilt-Costin received awards. Models in the show carried handbags from the debut collection of CK by Consuelo Vanderbilt, marking their New York catwalk debut for the exclusive handbags.

Notable attendees included: Diana Mahrach, Julia Haart, Consuelo Vanderbilt-Costin, Jill Zarin, Kristen Thorne, Melina, Shallon Lester, Lachi, Goldie Lux, Devika Gopal Agge of the New York Women's Foundation (NYWF), and Marco Maranghello (Hair Director).

The event took place in the heart of Midtown Manhattan at 3 West Club - a landmark venue known for its distinctive architecture and refined ambiance. With its elegant event spaces, the club has hosted numerous social and cultural gatherings over the decades, making it the perfect setting for a night dedicated to high fashion, cutting-edge art and striking jewelry design.
