TEXTILE-JAIN ART

Jain Chhods from Sarita Handa ARCHIVE . It unveiled the first of its treasures at the India Art Fair 2025— with an exhibition titled “ Ancient Moderns—The Art of Jain Chhods .” This gave the viewer an opportunity to witness India’s cultural history through textile artistry. Heavy zardozi embroidery (<https://www.shopkhoj.com/clothing/zardozi/>) on velvet textiles were pure masterpieces depicting cultural & mythological scenes . One could witness the intricate craftsmanship (<https://www.shopkhoj.com/clothing/marori-work/>) and learn about the rich cultural heritage behind each piece. They were restored pieces that looked practically new.

Art on Indian carpets (<https://www.shopkhoj.com/handicrafts/indian-carpets/>) was absolutely breathtaking.

The Book of Gold: the Kanchana Chitra Ramayana of Banaras. There was a digitised version of Tulsidas’ Ramayana . This was accomplished by Udit Narayan Singh, from the royal court of Banaras, who had artists illustrate Tulsidas’ Ramcharitmanas (Kanchana Chitra Ramayana), using real gold with figures from the story. It was a visual treat to see gods & goddesses moving on the screen. The entire 1000 pages were animated. This way, the entire Tulsidas Ramayana was made easily accessible to everyone.

In addition to textile art, the India ART FAIR 2025 also paid tribute to some of India's most celebrated masters. The works of MF Hussain, Souza, Raza, Bakre, and Ara were on display, offering a glimpse into the diverse styles and techniques of these iconic artists. This is a rare opportunity for art lovers to view and potentially acquire pieces from these galleries around the world. This makes the fair a must-visit for collectors.

The India ART FAIR 2025 is not just an exhibition, but a celebration of India's rich artistic heritage. (<https://www.shopkhoj.com/handicrafts/>). It is a platform for artists, collectors, and enthusiasts to come together and appreciate the beauty and diversity of Indian art.
