Cuddle Stones by The Living Urn

Cuddle Stones by The Living Urn are comforting handmade reminders of the loved ones we've lost. These unique ceramic cremation stones can be filled with a small portion of a loved one's ashes and cherished in your own special way – take your loved one with you wherever you go, and wherever you'd like! Their small size, natural design, and smooth surface make them fit comfortably in the palm of your hand and, as they are handmade, no two stones are alike.

We believe that our new Cuddle Stones and Heart Keepsakes will both be in high demand as families continue to look to memorialize loved ones and pets in their own special and unique way.”

Mark Brewer, President

Forever Loved Heart Keepsakes are high quality metal hearts that come in multiple colors and hold a small amount of a loved one's ashes. These make for beautiful reminders to display in a special place in the home.

Mark Brewer, company President, commented, “We're excited to expand our keepsake options and believe that our new Cuddle Stones and Heart Keepsakes will both be in high demand as families continue to look to memorialize loved ones and pets in their own special and unique way.”

Brewer continues, “We continue to focus on building out our keepsake line to give families even more memorial options. In addition to the new product launches we're announcing today, we will be introducing some really unique wood and stone keepsakes in the next few weeks that we expect will also be popular among families and funeral homes nationwide."
